Snow Days (Or Should I Say Cold Days?)

As you know, we cancelled classes the week of January 31st due to the cold and snowy weather that Denver was experiencing at that time. It is always a difficult decision to cancel our music classes and is never taken lightly. We realize that our families have made a commitment to these class times and that changing a young child's routine can be very difficult. However, our families' safety is always the priority, and, given that we are a downtown church and many of our families have to travel long distances to come to Trinity, we felt that it was in the best interests of our parents and children to cancel classes that week. The church ended up being closed on Tuesday and Wednesday, so we would have been unable to hold our mid-week classes anyway.

I hope that all of you received the message that classes were cancelled. Our teachers tried to contact each of their families via e-mail and/or phone. I also had a message posted on the Trinity website that classes had been cancelled. If you are ever in doubt about whether or not we are holding classes, please feel free to contact your teacher or Jackie Ives. You can also check out our website at trinityumc.org for a cancellation message.

Joseph & the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

Feb. 25th & 26th at 7:00

Feb. 27th at 2:00

The Trinity Drama Ministry would like to invite our ECM families to come to their upcoming presentation of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" on Feb. 25-27. This is a high-energy, entertaining retelling of the story of Joseph - the boy with the multi-colored coat whose brothers sold him as a slave but later rose to great power. It is a tale of jealousy, redemption, and love told through music and dance. Many of our former ECM students and parents are members of the cast. Do you recognize any of these names?

Addison Rieker
Karen Mueller
Connor Toedtli
Claire Steeno
Mary Soroka

Bryan Rieker
Krista Petersen
Blake Toedtli
